POLS 1101
Chapter 10 Study Guide

The Constitution and Congress
Bicameralism
Trustee, delegate, and politico models of representation
Jurisdictions and candidate requirements for House and Senate
Rules for congressional elections
Electoral connection
Redistricting and gerrymandering
  Packing and cracking
  Racial redistricting
Incumbency advantage
Reelection as a proximate goal
Party leaders in Congress
Role of parties in Congress
Committee system
Committee markup
Role of the House Rules Committee
Cloture and the filibuster in the Senate
Conference committees
Presidential veto and veto override
How much support needed to pass/defeat legislation
Differences between the House and the Senate
Congressional oversight