

POLS 1101: Introduction to American Government

Monday/Wednesday 9:05am-9:55am

Instructional Plaza N106

Instructor: Professor Alexa Bankert

Contact: alexa.bankert@uga.edu

Office: 110 E Clayton Street, Room 414

Office Hours: Wednesday 2-4 or by appointment

Course Description and Objective

This course is important – whether you are a Political Science major or not. You will be introduced to the fundamentals of the American government, such as its political institutions and main actors. Most importantly, this class aims to demonstrate how you are connected to the government in your daily life and present you with tools to become informed and act in politically meaningful ways. For this purpose, we will also examine what being American means in today’s society and how our political institutions and behavior compare to other countries. By doing so, you gain a better understanding of how specific features of the American system shape politics. Ultimately, you will leave this class with a comprehensive understanding of how to critically evaluate and actively participate in the American political system.

Evaluation

Response Paper: You will complete one short paper in this course. Topics are listed in the syllabus and match each week's theme. Note that the due date of the paper varies according to the topic you choose. Short papers can range from 5 to 10 pages (double spaced) and are due at the end of a week's theme as listed on the syllabus.

Final Exam: The final exam is not cumulative and will primarily consist of multiple choice questions with varying levels of difficulty. As of now, the exam is scheduled for Friday, April 28th from 8:00am – 11:00 am.

Midterm: The midterm will primarily consist of multiple choice questions with varying levels of difficulty. These questions will cover material from the first half of the semester. As of now, the midterm is scheduled for Monday, February 7th from 9:05am – 9:55am.

Weekly Assignments: There will be short weekly assignments which you can access on the InQuizitive website that accompanies your textbook at no cost (<https://digital.wwnorton.com/wethepeople1less>). You will need to create an account in order to submit your assignments which are due every Friday at 6pm of each week. In addition, you will be asked for a student set ID which is linked to the section you choose (see below). If you have trouble with the registration process, please contact your TA.

Student Set ID is 25003 for section 21537 from 8:00am to 8:50am (TA Eunjin Hwang)

Student Set ID is 25004 for section 21544 from 9:05 to 9:55am (TA Eunjin Hwang)

Student Set ID is 25006 for section 21545 from 9:05 to 9:55am (TA Gordon Ballingrud)

Student Set ID is 25007 for section 21548 from 10:10am to 11am (TA Gordon Ballingrud)

Student Set ID is 25008 for section 21550 from 10:10am to 11am (TA Jakub Wondreys)

Student Set ID is 25013 for section 21566 from 1:25pm to 2:15pm (TA Brianna Roberts Yoder)

Student Set ID is 25014 for section 21568 from 1:25pm to 2:15pm (TA Tara Trask)

Readings and Quizzes: The required readings typically include one chapter of the textbook per week. If any additional readings are assigned they will be made available electronically on eLC. It is important that you stay current with these readings so that you can follow along with lectures and participate in discussions in your sections. I would strongly recommend you finish the readings before your section takes place since there will be unannounced short quizzes (3-5 questions) based on the assigned readings for that week so make sure you are familiar with each chapter's key terms.

In-Section Participation: Do not hesitate to speak up in class or in your section! And if you have a question, other people are likely to have questions, too. Especially in your section, there will be discussions that should demonstrate your critical reflection on the material covered in class as well as on weekly assignments.

Attendance/Participation: I am sure you already know this but just to make sure: You are expected to come to class and your section, to be attentive and engaged in the lecture, and to participate in class discussions. You should not be texting, talking, or surfing the internet while class/section is in session.

Online Research Study: You are required to participate in an online research study. The study will take approximately 20-25 minutes and is supposed to provide you with an understanding of political science research.

Grade Appeals, Incompletes, Late Assignments, and Make-Up Policy

Any questions you have regarding grades should be directed to your teaching assistant. If you are unable to resolve the matter with him or her, you may appeal the grade to me. Keep in mind that formal grade appeals must be made in writing, and in the case of an exam, I will re-grade your entire test. Therefore, your grade can go up or down. A final grade of “Incomplete” will only be given in this course under exceptional circumstances and is solely at the discretion of the instructor. If an incomplete is given, it is the student’s responsibility to complete the necessary requirements as early in the following semester as possible. Legitimate excuses for absence from an exam (e.g., religious holiday, medical emergency, or illness) must be presented to the teaching assistant and accepted prior to the exam when feasible. Late assignments will be docked 5 percent per day (half letter grade), for each day that a project is late (including weekends). If you need a (reasonable) extension, talk to your teaching assistant.

Office Hours

Students who are having difficulty with the course materials and/or assignments are encouraged to contact their teaching assistant. Don’t be afraid to come by. However, please note that office hours are for clarification of material, not for recreating a lecture if you skipped class. If you like to talk to me, feel free to stop by my office during office hours but please email me in advance if possible.

Syllabus Policy:

I reserve the right to make changes to the syllabus if necessary. I will give you fair notice (at least a week) if something, such as a reading assignment, is to change.

Disability Resource Center

If you anticipate needing classroom or exam accommodations due to the impact of a disability or medical condition, you must register for services with the Disability Resource Center. Additional information can be found here: <http://drc.uga.edu/>

Withdrawal Policy

Undergraduate students can only withdraw from four courses and receive a withdrawal-passing (WP) grade while enrolled at the University. Students can drop any class without penalty during the drop/add period at the beginning of every semester. Dropped courses during the drop/add period do not qualify as withdrawals. Instructors have the ability to withdraw a student from the class due to excessive absences (see course attendance policy).

Please review the policy here: <http://www.reg.uga.edu/policies/withdrawals>

Culture of Honesty Policy

You are responsible for knowing and complying with the policy and procedures relating to academic honesty. To understand what constitutes dishonest work, as defined by the University, please carefully review the policy here: <https://ovpi.uga.edu/academichonesty/academic-honesty-policy>
