Incompletes will not be given in this class, so please plan ahead.

Exams:

The two exams will combine multiple choice, true/false, and short answer questions. Makeup exams are only permitted in extraordinary circumstances such as documented medical emergencies. The exams will test material from your readings, lectures, and class discussions. Unless otherwise noted, exams will NOT be cumulative.

Assignments:

30% of your grade will be based on three important assignments (each worth 10%). These assignments will include a crime data exercise, one assignment involving a GA defense attorney, and a group project, with an individual written component, researching and recommending a GA criminal justice policy reform. Further details on these assignments will be provided later in the semester.

Attendance and Participation:

This is the type of class where you will do better on your exams and assignments if you regularly and actively attend class. However, it is entirely at the discretion of students to decide whether to attend class on a given day. It is the responsibility of students who miss class to keep up with missed notes (from fellow students) and assignments. Students with strong attendance and in-class participation should expect to see close final grades be computed in their favor. Note that we will have seating assignments to help me more quickly learn your names (selected during the first week of class).

Academic Integrity:

Please see UGA's extensive policies on academic honesty (<http://honesty.uga.edu>). Be aware that under no circumstances will cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty be tolerated in this class.
