

INTL 3200: Introduction to International Relations

University of Georgia – Fall 2018
Candler Hall 115, MWF 11:15am-12:05pm

Dr. Maryann E. Gallagher

mgallag@uga.edu

Office: Candler Hall 202

Office Hours: Weds 2:30-4:30pm & Ths 9:30-10:30am by appointment

Course Overview and Objectives:

The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the theories and concepts that scholars use to study international relations. We will examine the various actors that play a role in international politics (e.g. states, leaders, intergovernmental organizations, NGOs, norms), by analyzing how they are defined, their interests, and actions. We will study their interactions with each other in conflict, economic relations, and in building institutions for cooperation.

The course begins with an overview of the major theoretical lenses that are used to interpret the behavior of international actors. With this foundation in place we will examine questions tied to specific issue areas, such as: Why do states go to war? Why do a few states have/want nuclear weapons? Why do some groups resort to terrorism? What is the United Nations and what can it do? Why do states cooperate (sometimes) and join international institutions like the World Trade Organization or the International Criminal Court? What are the benefits and costs of free trade? How does climate change pose a national security threat? Students will be exposed to different perspectives on these issues with the intention that they will leave the course able to think and argue critically about international relations. Moreover, students will develop an appreciation for the scholarship of international relations by examining different approaches that scholars have taken to answering key questions in IR.

While this is not a course on current events, we will often rely on examples in the news to inform our understanding of the concepts addressed in the readings. Students will become aware of the influence of global issues on their lives and how the decisions they make each day impact global politics. By the end of this course students will be familiar with the language scholars use to discuss international relations, and will be prepared to take upper-level IR courses.

Requirements:

- Readings: It is expected that you will complete the readings listed on the syllabus prior to coming to class. Should you fail to do the readings it will be evident in your lack of participation during class discussions. On occasion an article relevant to the topic we are covering will be published and will be assigned on short notice. In that case I will post the article to the “ANNOUNCEMENTS” section of the class ELC page. *PLEASE REGISTER FOR NOTIFICATIONS!

There is one required text:

Joshua S. Goldstein and Jon C. Pevehouse. International Relations, Brief 7th Edition. Pearson. ISBN-13: 978-0134406350

Students are required to purchase a subscription to Statecraft Simulation (details below).

All other readings will be posted on the class ELC page unless otherwise noted*

You are also required to keep up with current events – see below*

- Grading

Your final course grade will be determined by the following assessments:

- Midterm Exam – 25%
- Final Exam – 30%
- Movie Reflection – 5%
- Class Participation – 10%
- Simulation – 30%
 - Participation - 15% (5% quizzes + 10% posts)
 - Performance - 5% (based on QOL) Possible +3% EC*
 - Final Essay - 10%

Letter grades correspond to the following 0-100 scale:

94-100	A	74-76	C
90-93	A-	70-73	C-
87-89	B+	67-69	D+
84-86	B	64-66	D
80-83	B-	60-63	D-
77-79	C+	00-59	F

- Lectures and class discussion are intended to supplement, not duplicate, the readings. Exams will draw upon readings and class notes. Note the dates of your midterm and finals exams. Makeup exams will not be given; plan your travels accordingly.
- Simulation: An integral part of this course will be your participation in an online international politics simulation called Statecraft. All students are required to obtain a subscription to Statecraft. To register go to www.statecraftsim.com, create a student account and enter the passcode: INTL3200_Fall18_Small along with your username and password. You will then need to pay the semester subscription fee of $35 using a credit card or PayPal through the website. Additional details on the simulation and related assignments will be distributed separately.
 - Simulation Memos: Each student must submit a memo of at least 300 words each week BEFORE the turn ends (i.e. Saturday at 11pm) using the link on Statecraft. In general these memos should reflect on your activity that week, the dynamics of the statecraft world that relate to the theories we’ve read about and discussed in class, and the connections between your statecraft world and current events, however some weeks you will be given a specific prompt. These memos are intended to ensure that you are actively participating and thinking about the simulation each week, and will hopefully provide some foundation for your final simulation essay. Your grade will be based on completion (not content), however memos that indicate a lack of seriousness on your part will not be counted. Late memos and memos shorter than 300 words will not be counted.

- Written Assignments: All assignments are to be typed and handed in at the START of class on the due date (unless otherwise noted). Late assignments will be penalized 1% of your overall grade for each day late. All written assignments should meet the following formatting requirements: 12-point font, double spaced, 1” margins, and page numbers in bottom right-hand corner.
- Participation: Simply showing up to class does not constitute participation. You are expected to play an active role in class discussions. That said, simply speaking in class will not earn you a “good” participation grade. Those with the highest participation grades will ask insightful questions and present arguments grounded in the class readings and research. Students are encouraged to use the ELC discussion group as a space to engage with your peers about topics related to the course.
 - We will often discuss contentious political issues and I expect that you will be respectful of each other’s perspectives. Interruptions, slurs, or making fun of students or their views will not be tolerated.
- Attendance: I will take attendance every class and I expect you to be present. You are permitted three absences without penalty. You can use these however you choose (e.g., illness, sports travel, interviews, sleep, etc.). Each absence beyond these 3 will result in a 1% deduction from your final overall average.
 - However, because your attendance on simulation days is crucial, more than one absence on a simulation Friday will result in a separate .5% (per absence) deduction from your final grade.

Other important information:

- Current Events: Students are REQUIRED to stay up to date on world politics for class discussions. I suggest that you skim a major newspaper, such as the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Washington Post, The Guardian (UK) or a weekly periodical, such as The Economist, on a regular basis. Students often note, “there is so much in the news, what do I need to know?” Each of these newspapers has a “world politics” section.
 - Tips: I strongly suggest linking your web browser home page to an international news source. You can also download apps to automatically keep you up-to-date on news, or have the headlines of the day automatically emailed to you (e.g. Foreign Policy, Council of Foreign Relations (www.cfr.org), Economist). There are also several useful IR blogs, including: Duck of Minerva, War on the Rocks, Political Violence at a Glance, Walt’s blog at Foreign Policy, and the Monkey Cage (which covers all the subfields of Political Science). For those of you interested in televised or podcast world news, I suggest BBC World News.
- Technology:

- Laptops are not welcome in class, unless I instruct you to bring one. Should you need to use a laptop please provide proper documentation from UGA's Disability Resource Center (DRC).
- All phones should be shut off or set to silent – NOT VIBRATE – before arriving to class. The use or interruption of these devices during regular class time will result in a reduction of your participation grade, and during test periods will be treated as cheating.
- Communication and Email: I will keep you updated about the course and any changes to the syllabus through the “ANNOUNCEMENTS” board on the class ELC page. *PLEASE REGISTER FOR NOTIFICATIONS!
 - When emailing me please only use your UGA email account and include your course number in the subject line. In most cases I will respond to emails within 24 hours. Importantly, before you email me please check the syllabus and the ANNOUNCEMENTS on ELC to be sure that your question has not been previously addressed.
 - A note on etiquette: please use appropriate salutations including my name in the opening (NOT Miss/Ms./Mrs. Gallagher!) and your name in the closing. (Hint: you can't go wrong with “Dear Professor Gallagher”).
 - For further guidance see <http://www.wikihow.com/Email-a-Professor>.
- Office Hours – I will be available to meet with students during the office hours listed above by appointment only. You can schedule an appointment at: <https://docs.google.com/document/d/11V8ETwJbmKJ8ah9eIUtHOYRyf0B7wFSLWYWUS3j4GTc/edit>.
- Academic Dishonesty – As a University of Georgia student, you have agreed to abide by the University's academic honesty policy, “A Culture of Honesty,” and the Student Honor Code. All academic work must meet the standards described in “A Culture of Honesty” found at: <http://www.uga.edu/honesty>. Lack of knowledge of the academic honesty policy is not a reasonable explanation for a violation. Any student caught cheating or plagiarizing will be referred to Judicial Affairs, as required by university policy. The most common issue of academic dishonesty I have come across is plagiarism. To be clear, plagiarism is copying from any source material (direct or paraphrasing of ideas), published or unpublished (this includes Wikipedia!), without giving proper credit. I will post a link to the Chicago Manual of Style citation format on ELC.
- Contested Grades: Students are always welcome to come discuss assignments and their overall class performance during my office hours. If you find a mathematical error on a graded assignment please let me know immediately. Students wishing to contest a grade must wait 24 hours after their assignment/exam has been returned to make an appointment to see me. During that appointment students should come prepared with (1) their assignment/exam, (2) a typed explanation of what the best possible response to the prompt would look like, (3) a typed explanation of how their work compares to that best answer, and (4) their class and reading notes. All requests for such meetings must be made within two weeks of the date the assignment/exam was returned.
- Students with Disabilities: UGA is committed to providing equal access to academic programs and university-administered activities and reasonable modifications to students with disabilities. Students in need of academic accommodations need to request such services from the Disability Resource Center located at 114 Clark Howell Hall (for more information visit www.drc.uga.edu) and should make an appointment to see me with their appropriate paperwork from the DRC within the first two weeks of classes.

- UGA's code of conduct protects student privacy and intellectual property and thus prohibits recording and digital release of classroom lectures and conversations unless a student has an accommodation from the DRC. If this is your situation, please let me know and we will devise an accommodation that protects your right to privacy, that of your classmates, and everyone's intellectual property.
- This syllabus is subject to change throughout the semester
