

PADP 6920

Public Personnel Administration Spring 2019

Thursdays 6:15 – 9:00 pm
Gwinnett Center

J. Edward Kellough
276 Baldwin Hall
707-542-0488 (Office)
email: kellough@uga.edu

Office Hours:
Wed. 1:30-3:00
Other hours by appointment

General Description:

This course focuses on selected topics in the study and practice of public personnel administration. Essentially, it is an analysis of the literature, problems, and directions of public personnel issues. The emphasis is on reading, analyzing the literature, and probing the scope of the field. Students should develop an appreciation for the dynamic political environment and the statutory and Constitutional restrictions that distinguish public personnel management from its counterpart in the private sector. Fundamental questions and techniques will be stressed. A variety of class exercises and case analyses will supplement the assigned reading. The course operates from the point of view that personnel administration is one of the most critical concerns in public management. Completion of the course will provide a foundation that will allow students to deal successfully with personnel concepts in other classes and ultimately in their careers.

Texts:

Lloyd G. Nigro and J. Edward Kellough, The New Public Personnel Administration, seventh edition, (Boston: Wadsworth, Cengage Learning, 2014). ISBN: 978-1-133-73428-4

Norma M. Riccucci, ed., Public Personnel Management: Current Concerns, Future Challenges, sixth edition, (New York: Routledge, 2018). ISBN 978-1-138-68970-1

Additional reading material is available on the UGA eLC website.

Course Structure:

Attendance: Attendance is expected. I assume that since you are investing your time and money in this class that you wish to learn the material. In order to do so, you must be present in class, and you should arrive at the assigned start time. If you need to miss a class for a legitimate medical or other emergency, please notify me as soon as possible.

A portion of your final grade (20%) will be based on the quality of your participation in class. Your grade for participation will be an aggregate of your performance on class exercises, presentations, discussion, and attendance. These elements will not receive individual grades, but note that your participation grade will suffer if you do not attend class. Also, if you have an attendance problem, you are likely to do poorly on the examinations.

Notwithstanding everything said above, please do not come to class if you have a contagious illness. Making me or others sick will not enhance your participation grade and will only earn you the enmity of your colleagues.

Student Presentations: Students will prepare and present summaries of key court cases or other personnel management issues or policies of their choice. These presentations should be approximately 20 minutes in length and should make use of PowerPoint slides, videos, or other media. Students may work alone or with a partner. You should think of these presentations as training seminars in which you inform your colleagues (and me) of important aspects of the selected topic. Cases and issues for presentation are listed on this syllabus, but you may also present on other topics in which you have an interest. A written summary of the major points of your presentation should be distributed to everyone in class. Students who make presentations on September 11 will earn two extra points that will be added to their final course grade. Students who make presentations on September 18 will earn one extra point on their final grade.

Issue Paper: A term paper summarizing and assessing the literature and primary arguments surrounding a key issue affecting contemporary public personnel administration is required. The paper must be a minimum of 15 pages in length. A one-paragraph paper proposal outlining the topic selected by the student and explaining its significance is due on January 31. Students may write papers on the same topics covered by their formal presentations and are encouraged to do so. Papers are due on April 25.

Examinations: There will be a mid-term and a final examination. The mid-term examination, scheduled for February 28, will be completed in class and will consist of multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions covering selected topics. The final examination will be a take-home exam distributed on April 25 and due by 5:00 pm on May 2. Each examination is designed to test your ability to understand and critically evaluate the reading, lecture, and discussion material covered in the course.

Grading: Grades will be based on points obtained but, in general, if your performance in this class is “excellent” you will receive a grade of “A.” If you have good or very good performance, you will receive a “B” or “B+.” Those, if any, who do not have a basic mastery of the material will receive a grade of “C.” A grade of “F,” which is virtually unprecedented, is reserved for those who do not do the work.

Elements of the class are weighted in the following manner:

| Course Component       | Weight |
|-------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. Quality of the Issue Paper | 30%           |
| 2. Participation              | 20%           |
| 3. Midterm Exam               | 25%           |
| 4. Final Exam                 | 25%    |
|                               | 100%          |

Academic Honesty: All students must abide by the University of Georgia policy regarding academic honesty. All academic work must be performed without any form of cheating, lying, stealing, or receiving assistance from any other person or using any source of information not appropriately authorized or attributed. The University policy on academic honesty may be accessed at <http://www.uga.edu/honesty/>.

Computers, Cell Phones, and other Electronic Devices: You may bring a laptop computer to class, and indeed, you are encouraged to do so. You will find it is useful for course work. You may, of course, also bring your cell phone, iPad, or other similar device. However, while you are in class, please refrain from using these devices for activities unrelated to course work. Such activities could include surfing the web, working on Facebook, watching videos, checking your e-mail, tweeting, or engaging in other similar actions. Please also make sure that your phone is silenced during class time.

CLASS SCHEDULE

January 10: INTRODUCTION

A review of course requirements...general discussion of the field of public personnel administration.

January 17: FOUNDATIONS OF THE FIELD

A look at the development of public personnel management in the United States...Review of the early American bureaucracy and the rise of patronage.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapters 1.
Riccucci, Chapter 1

Paul P. Van Riper, History of the United States Civil Service (Evanston, Illinois: Row, Peterson, and Company, 1958), Chapter 2: “Bureaucratic Beginnings: 1789-1829” and Chapter 3: “The Victors: 1829-1869.”

January 24: REFORM I: THE PRINCIPLE OF MERIT

Consideration of the reform movement of the late nineteenth century and the triumph of the merit principle.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 2, pp. 17 - 25.

Paul P. Van Riper, History of the United States Civil Service (Evanston, Illinois: Row, Peterson, and Company, 1958), Chapter 5: “Americanizing a Foreign Invention: The Pendleton Act of 1883.”

The Pendleton Act

<http://www.ourdocuments.gov/doc.php?flash=true&doc=48&page=transcript>

January 31: REFORM II: MERIT, MANAGEMENT, AND POLITICS

Analysis of the current reform movement...The struggle to balance political responsiveness and neutral competence in the public service.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 2, pp. 25 – 36.

Gene Brewer and J. Edward Kellough. 2016. "Administrative Values and Public Personnel Management: Reflections on Civil Service Reform in the United States," Public Personnel Management, 45(2): 171-189.

McGarth, Robert J. 2013. "The Rise and Fall of Radical Civil Service Reform in the United States." Public Administration Review, 73, 4: 638-649.

Topics for Presentation:

Branti v. Finkel, 445 U.S. 507 (1980) – Dismissal for Political Purposes.

Rutan v. Republican Party of Illinois, 497 U. S. 62 (1990) – Transfer, Recall, and other Actions for Political purposes.

The Hatch Act and its Amendments – Political Activities of Public Employees.

Paper Proposal Due

February 7: THE STRUGGLE FOR EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Discussion of the development of equal employment opportunity policy.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 9

Topics for Presentation:

The Civil Rights Act of 1964_– Title VII (as amended)

The Civil Rights Act of 1991

Griggs et al. v. Duke Power Company, 401 U.S. 424 (1971) – Discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Sexual Harassment in the Workplace

Laws prohibiting discrimination based on sexual orientation

February 14: FROM AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO AFFIRMING DIVERSITY

A look at the concept of affirmative action and its legal parameters.

Riccucci, Chapters 4, 5, and 6.

Topics for Presentation:

United Steel Workers of America v. Weber, 443 U.S. 208 (1979)

Johnson v. Transportation Agency, Santa Clara County, 480 U.S. 616 (1987)

Grutter v. Bollinger, 539 U.S. 306 (2003)

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

February 21: RECRUITMENT, EXAMINATION, AND SELECTION

A discussion of recruitment and examination methods in public personnel administration...consideration of legal constraints on selection processes...employee training and development.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 4.
Ricucci, Chapters 10 and 11.

Topics for Presentation:

Ricci v. DeStefano 557 U.S. 557 (2009)

Uniform Guidelines on Employee Selection, 29 CFR Part 1607 (1978)

February 28: MID-TERM EXAM

March 7: JOB ANALYSIS AND EVALUATION

Consideration of job analysis techniques...methods of classifying jobs or positions.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 5.
Leonard N. Persson, The Handbook of Job Evaluations and Job Pricing, (Madison, Connecticut: Business and Legal Reports, Inc., 1989), Chapter 1.

In-class exercise: Job Evaluation using the FES

March 14: SPRING BREAK

March 21: JOB PRICING AND EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION

Analysis of the process of building a compensation structure... review of the issue of pay equity and the concept of comparable worth.

Leonard N. Persson, The Handbook of Job Evaluations and Job Pricing, (Madison, Connecticut: Business and Legal Reports, Inc., 1989), Chapter 2.
Ricucci, Chapter 13.

Topics for Presentation:

AFSCME v. State of Washington, 770 F.2d 1401 (1985)
The Issue of Pay Equity
County of Washington v. Gunther, 452 U.S. 161 (1981)

March 28: PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL

Discussion of issues associated with measuring employee performance in public organizations.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapters 3 and Chapter 6, pp. 143-160.
Ricucci, Chapter 14.

Topics for Presentation:

Description of a performance appraisal system in a selected public agency

April 4: EMPLOYEE MOTIVATION AND MERIT PAY

A review of motivation theories and their implications for personnel management.
Consideration of pay-for-performance systems.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 6, pp. 160-170.
Gary P. Latham, Work Motivation: History, Theory, Research, and Practice, (Thousand Oaks, California: Sage Publications, 2007), Chapters 1 – 3.

Topics for Presentation:

Pros and Cons of Pay-for-Performance Systems
Total Quality Management
Management by Objectives

April 11: PUBLIC EMPLOYEE UNIONS AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Analysis of public sector labor relations and collective bargaining practices.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 7.

Riccucci, Chapter 8

Topics for Presentation:

Summary of state laws on public sector collective bargaining

Pros and Cons of the right to strike by public employees

Union rights for federal employees

April 18: STATUTORY AND CONSTITUTIONAL CONSTRAINTS

A review of additional federal statutes regulating public sector human resources management including the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. A discussion of Constitutional limitations on public personnel management including consideration of employee rights under the 1st, 4th, 5th, and 14th Amendments.

Jerry Hartman, Gregory W. Homer, and Alisa H. Reff, “The Legal Issues in Human Resource Management,” in Handbook of Human Resource Management in Government, Stephen E. Condrey, ed., (San Francisco: Jossey-Bass, 2010), Chapter 18, pp. 423-454.

Nigro and Kellough, Chapter 8.

Riccucci, Chapter 9

United States Constitution, Amendments 1, 4, 5, and 14.

Topics for Presentation:

Fair Labor Standards Act

Family and Medical Leave Act

Cleveland v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532 (1985)

April 25: WHITHER PUBLIC PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION?

Consideration of the future of the field of Public Personnel Administration

Nigro and Kellough, Chapters 10 and 11.

Riccucci, Chapters 12 and 15.

Paper Due

Final Exam Distributed

May 2: Final Exam Due at 5:00pm