

Boris Alexander Abreu

1005 Macon Highway, Apt 1622-1, Athens, GA, 30606 | 678-951-4731 | babreu97@gmail.com

Objective

- Obtain a Master's in International Policy from the University of Georgia, expected graduation fall of 2020.

Education

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA | GRADUATED MAY 2019, CUM LAUDE

- Bachelor of Arts in Political Science
- Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs
- Minor in Spanish Language and Culture
- Cumulative GPA: 3.71

Skills

- Proficient in Spanish, spoken and written.
- Communicatory skills and interpersonal skills.
- Media skills, more specifically, journalistic and editorial skills.
- Detail-oriented and skilled researcher.

Activities

THE BACKPACK PROJECT @ UGA- PRESIDENT | OCTOBER 2017-MAY 2019

- Elected President of TBP @ UGA as of October 2017
- Takes an oversight role for the organization, overseeing the board members and coordinating projects.
- Serves as the primary liaison between TBP and TBP@ UGA.
- Coordination between the board members to draft a budget for the semester and keep tabs on expenses.
- Responsible for coordinating volunteer projects and fundraising events, as well as coordinating the backpack distribution at the end of the semester.

THE ARCH CONSERVATIVE- CONTRIBUTOR, PUBLISHING EDITOR | AUGUST 2017-PRESENT

- Student contributor for the Arch Conservative magazine, a student-run, conservative leaning publication at UGA.
- Responsible for making final edits to blog postings and coordinating with the other editors about when to post them, as well as coordinating with the contributors.
- Responsible for editing the Print Edition pieces with the other editors when release time comes.
- Also responsible for coordination with the parent organization and the publishing company to get magazines published in a time-efficient manner.

Experience

CONGRESSIONAL INTERN | UNITED STATES SENATE | MAY 16, 2016-JUNE 10, 2016

- Worked in the Office of Senator David Perdue, R-GA under the general advising of the Press Team.
- Responsible for assisting the press team with publishing op-eds and news articles concerning the senator, as well as providing relevant material for speeches.
- Responsible for handling constituent mail and email inquiries and directing it to the appropriate staffers.
- Responsible for assisting staffers and fellow interns in conducting policy research in several different areas.
- Responsible for giving constituent tours of the United States Capitol building.

CONGRESSIONAL INTERN | UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES | MAY 17, 2017 – JUNE 23, 2017

- Worked in the Office of the Majority Leader, Representative Kevin McCarthy, CA-23
- Responsible for assisting staffers and fellow interns with policy research.
- Responsible for giving tours of the Capitol to constituents and other parties.
- Responsible for handling constituent mail, drafting letters, and directing concerns to the appropriate staffers.
- Responsible for attending hearings and meetings as directed by the appropriate staff.

CONGRESSIONAL INTERN | UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES | JULY 9, 2018–AUGUST 3, 2018

- Returned to the Office of the Majority Leader, Representative Kevin McCarthy, CA-23
- Answering phone calls from constituents and handling their concerns, as appropriate.
- Conducting background research on policy issues that were salient to the Leader's staff.
- Helping craft the language for proposed legislation and amendments that were of interest to the Leader's district.
- Tracking legislative trends and amendments in the House and Senate proceedings and updating the appropriate staff.
- Giving tours of the United States Capitol and the US House to constituents of the Leader's.
- General support staff for the office, such as event planning and execution, as well as other "intern" duties.
- Coordination with other interns on large scale projects of importance to the staff.

PROGRAM AND DEVELOPMENT INTERN | THE ALEXANDER HAMILTON SOCIETY | MAY 21, 2019—AUGUST 2, 2019

- As PDI, I worked directly underneath the Marketing and Development Associate, conducting research and working on large-scale projects of importance to the staff.
- Responsible for conducting research into donation, alumni management, and CRM platforms for the management of AHS' alumni network.
- Analysis of data and report crafting for meetings of the Board of Director and staff, measuring alumni engagement, careers, and statistical improvements.
- Writing and editing documents and newsletters for alumni and the Board of Directors.
- General AHS support staff, setting up and managing conferences and event for students and staff, featuring speakers in the fields of national security, foreign policy, and economic statecraft.