POLS 1101: Introduction to American Government

Fall Semester 2020
Instructor: Professor Alexa Bankert
Contact: alexa.bankert@uga.edu
Office Hours: By appointment

Course Description and Objective
This course is important – whether you are a Political Science major or not. You will be introduced to the fundamentals of the American government, such as its political institutions and main actors. Most importantly, this class aims to demonstrate how you are connected to the government in your daily life and present you with tools to become informed and act in politically meaningful ways. For this purpose, we will also examine what being American means in today’s society and how our political institutions and behavior compare to other countries. By doing so, you gain a better understanding of how specific features of the American system shape politics. Ultimately, you will leave this class with a comprehensive understanding of how to critically evaluate and actively participate in the American political system.

COVID-19 Related Adjustments to the Class Format
This class consists of a biweekly lecture (Mondays/Wednesdays) as well as a breakout session guided by a teaching assistant on Fridays. The lectures will be posted online every Monday and Wednesday while the breakout session will take place in-person. However, attendance is not mandatory and your teaching assistant will post the content of the breakout session online. All quizzes, exams, and assignments will be completed online. All class materials can be accessed via eLC and will be delivered asynchronously. If you decide to attend the in-person breakout section, you are required to wear a face mask throughout the class and to maintain social distancing procedures. Please note that all breakout sessions move completely online after Thanksgiving Break.

Evaluation

Response Paper: You will complete one short paper in this course. Topics are listed in the syllabus and match each week’s theme. Please make sure to stick with the paper prompt and to rely on factual information and authoritative sources when crafting your argument. Note that the due date of the paper varies according to the topic you choose. Short papers can range from 5 to 10 pages (double spaced) and are due at 5pm on Mondays the following week (see deadlines in the course schedule). Please make sure to discuss the criteria of the paper with your TA in advance. You can submit a draft of your paper to your TA for review. This draft must be submitted by Wednesday 5pm to get feedback by Friday.
Midterm: The midterm will primarily consist of multiple-choice questions with varying levels of difficulty. These questions will cover material from the first half of the semester. As of now, the midterm exam is scheduled for Wednesday, October 14th. The exam will be available from 12pm – 3pm. If you are in a different time zone, please email me and I will adjust your exam time.

Final Exam: The final exam is not cumulative and will primarily consist of multiple-choice questions with varying levels of difficulty. As of now, the final exam is scheduled for Monday, December 9th, 9am – 12pm. If you are in a different time zone, please email me and I will adjust your exam time.

Weekly Assignments: There will be short weekly assignments which you can access on the InQuizitive website that accompanies your textbook (you can find their website here: https://digital.wwnorton.com/wethepeople12ess) You will need to create an account in order to submit your assignments, which are due every Friday at 6pm of each week.

It is important that you stay current with these readings so that you can follow along with lectures and participate in discussions in your sections. I would strongly recommend you finish the readings before you complete any assignments. There will also be short quizzes (3-5 questions) based on the lectures and assigned readings for that week so make sure you are familiar with each chapter’s key terms.

In-Section Participation: There will be group discussions (in-person and/or online) that should demonstrate your critical reflection on the material covered in class as well as on the weekly assignments.

Online Research Study: You are required to participate in two online surveys that we will use to learn about political science research. The first survey link will be distributed by the end of September. The second survey link will be distributed by the end of November. Both surveys will take approximately 20-25 minutes to complete.

Grade Appeals, Incompletes, Late Assignments, and Make-Up Policy
Any questions you have regarding grades should be directed to your teaching assistant. If you are unable to resolve the matter with him or her, you may appeal the grade to me. Keep in mind that formal grade appeals must be made in writing, and in the case of a paper, I will re-grade your entire paper. Therefore, your grade can go up or down. A final grade of “Incomplete” will only be given in this course under exceptional circumstances and is solely at the discretion of the instructor. If an incomplete is given, it is the student’s responsibility to complete the necessary requirements as early in the following semester as possible. Legitimate excuses for absence from an exam (e.g., religious holiday, medical emergency, or illness) must be presented to the teaching assistant and accepted prior to the exam when feasible. Late assignments will be docked 5 percent per day (half letter grade), for each day that a project is late (including weekends). If you need a (reasonable) extension, talk to your teaching assistant.

Office Hours
Students who are having difficulty with the course materials and/or assignments are encouraged to contact their teaching assistant. Don’t be afraid to schedule a Zoom meeting with them. However, please note that these online office hours are for clarification of material, not for recreating a lecture or asking extremely detailed questions about the quizzes or the exam (i.e. “Will this be on the exam?”). If you like to talk to me, feel free to make an appointment via email.

Syllabus Policy:
I reserve the right to make changes to the syllabus if necessary. I will give you fair notice (at least a week) if something, such as a reading assignment, is to change.

Disability Resource Center
If you anticipate needing accommodations due to the impact of a disability or medical condition, you must register for services with the Disability Resource Center. Additional information can be found here: http://drc.uga.edu/

Withdrawal Policy
Undergraduate students can only withdraw from four courses and receive a withdrawal-passing (WP) grade while enrolled at the University. Students can drop any class without penalty during the drop/add period at the beginning of every semester. Dropped courses during the drop/add period do not qualify as withdrawals. Instructors have the ability to withdraw a student from the class due to excessive absences (see course attendance policy). Please review the policy here: https://reg.uga.edu/general-information/policies/withdrawals/

Culture of Honesty Policy
You are responsible for knowing and complying with the policy and procedures relating to academic honesty. To understand what constitutes dishonest work, as defined by the University, please carefully review the policy here: https://honesty.uga.edu/_resources/documents/academic_honesty_policy_2017.pdf

COVID-19 Safety Procedures
Face coverings. Face coverings in public spaces, including classrooms, are mandatory for all. Wearing a face covering is in addition to and not a substitute for also maintaining six feet social distancing. Anyone not using a face covering when required will be asked to wear one or must leave the area.

Keeping a safe distance. Please maintain six feet between you and others. The seating capacity in your classroom has been modified to allow for social distancing. Please sit in designated, marked seats. In all public spaces, including classrooms, you should not remove signage or re-arrange furniture, even if it appears that furniture is not being used. To help maintain distance, please keep right, where possible.

Don’t congregate. If you want to spend some time chatting with someone, please take it outside or online. We are also requesting that you enter and exit any building without delay, staying outside of the building as long as practicable before your class begins and then leaving once your class if finished.

Keeping it clean. Cleaning and disinfecting of public spaces are important to reduce the risk of exposure to COVID-19. Classrooms are only being cleaned once-per-day. There are sanitation wipes/buckets and stands in proximity to your classroom. Prior to heading in to class, you should take a wipe from the station and wipe down all high-touch surfaces associated with your seat. You should help further slow the spread of the virus by frequently washing your hands.

Your health. You have been provided with a digital thermometer and are required to self-monitor for signs or symptoms of COVID-19. By coming to campus, you are acknowledging that you have checked, and do not have, symptoms of COVID-19. UGA is using a notification application to remind you daily to check for symptoms prior to coming to campus and self-report in the event you display COVID-19 symptoms. If you report symptoms, the University follows a confidential process for securely notifying health officials who can begin contact tracing and provide appropriate support services. If you have an underlying medical condition or, for any reason, believe that you are at a high risk of developing a serious case of COVID-19, you may request an accommodation through the Disability Resource Center (DRC) at drc@uga.edu or 706-542-8719. More information can be found at https://drc.uga.edu/content_page/student-accommodation-guidelines

Check your email regularly so you don't miss important information, and also check the University COVID-19 website for updates and resources, this web site includes links from student affairs with helpful, up-to-date messages for students and parents.

Mental Health and Wellness Resources. If you or someone you know needs assistance, you are encouraged to contact Student Care and Outreach in the Division of Student Affairs at 706-542-7774 or visit https://sco.uga.edu.
