

Jackson Tilley

Graduate Student

Jackson Tilley

6701 Christina Oaks
Alexandria, LA 71301

(443) 975-8180
Jackson.Tilley@uga.edu
jtilleyonline@gmail.com

Research Interests

International Conflict and Conflict Resolution
Security Studies
Political Economy

Education

University of Georgia / Graduate Student

August 2020 - Present - Athens, GA

Political Science and International Affairs PhD Program

Subfield: International Relations

Louisiana State University / Graduate

August 2017 - May 2020 - Baton Rouge, LA

Major: Political Science

Concentration: International Politics and Law

Cumulative GPA: 3.89

Major GPA: 4.0

Research

LSU Dept. of Political Science/ Research Assistant

August 2019 - March 2020, Baton Rouge, LA

Helped conduct research into conflict resolution. Coordinated with Dr. Leonard Ray and Dmitriy Nurullayev assisting with various research tasks

“Explaining the Occurrence of Interstate Cyber Attacks, 2000-2018: The Case of Russia”/ Co-Author

To be submitted for peer review in Fall 2020

Co-authored an in-preparation manuscript with Dmitriy R. Nurullayev and Mark J. Mullenbach on the effects of interstate cyber attacks

Professional Experience

National Center for Disaster Fraud / Call Center Operator

November 2018 - Present, Baton Rouge, LA

Took callers' complaints on fraud, waste, misuse, and abuse within the Social Security Administration and the Department of Homeland Security.

The UPS Store / Retail Worker

June 2016 - August 2017, Alexandria, LA

Packaged and shipped customers' items in addition to addressing customers' complaints and upkeeping the store.

Extracurricular

President's and Dean's Honor Roll recipient
President's Gold Scholarship recipient
Studied in Europe during the summer semester of 2018
Completed over 100 service hours during college career
Member of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity for 3 years

Skills

Introductory understanding of statistical analysis programs such as STATA. Strong in all mediums of communication, especially analytical writing. Beginning/intermediate capability in Spanish.