

L. LAREDO LOYD

EDUCATION

University of Georgia - Athens, Georgia
August 2020 - May 2022
Master of International Policy
International Security and Nonproliferation Emphasis
School of Public and International Affairs — 3.7 GPA

Texas Christian University - Fort Worth, Texas
August 2015 - May 2019
Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Psychology
Minors in International Relations, Spanish
John V. Roach Honors College

RESEARCH AND INITIATIVE

The Rendon Group (TRG) - Washington, D.C.
Research Analyst

April 2021—September 2021

- Worked alongside the TRG U.S. Department of Justice Alerts Team to compile daily briefings on topics such as national security, customs and border control, immigration policy, among others

UGA Center for International Trade and Security (CITS) - Athens, GA

August 2020—May 2022

Dean Rusk Scholar in International Relations - Graduate Research Assistant

- Compiled and presented reports for the department's globally-recognized research projects on topics such as nuclear deterrence, nonproliferation, counterterrorism, energy security, and US grand strategy
- Collaborated with department fellows in planning department events, coordinating guest speakers, as well as expanding alumni relations and various administrative tasks

Mayor and City Council Office - Fort Worth, TX

June 2018—January 2020

Staff Aide to Mayor and Council

- Collaborated directly with the chief of staff, mayor's aide, and other staff in writing speeches, policy briefings, and letters, as well as directly managing project timelines and initiatives to streamline office productivity
- Initiated and managed the execution of a streamlined internship program within the office, serving as chief of staff overseeing the responsibilities and development of a team of seven interns to nine city districts
- Researched and composed reports on aspects of city concerns, ranging from homelessness, business prospects in EVTOL vehicles, NAFTA renegotiations, and federal government relations
- Scheduled and executed town halls through local contacts and businesses, coordinated social media initiatives, and collaborated in similar duties under the press secretary and deputy chief of staff

LEADERSHIP

Executive Team, Master of International Policy Cohort (UGA)

2021-2022

President

- Introduced and mentored new members to the department's Master of International Policy students
- Coordinated initiatives and events within the cohort's executive team, between graduate student organizations, and between the students and department leaders

Student Government Association (TCU)

2015-2019

Honors Representative (Elected 2015-2018), Chaplain (Appointed 2016), Parliamentarian (Appointed 2018)

- Served on the Executive Board to assist in the management of SGA's $800,000 yearly budget, composed invocations for campus events, and collected survey data from students for improved strategy execution
- Led the committee and secured $20,000 for TCU's first campus initiative to promote diversity and inclusion
- Established the first student representative mentor program and introduced software for organization efficiency

Toastmasters ("Talking Frogs") (TCU)

2016-2017

Co-Founder, Vice President of New Member Education—TCU Chapter

- Introduced and mentored new members in the organization while facilitating effective participation

RECOGNITION

- (UGA) Dean Rusk Scholar in International Relations 2020-2022
- Universidad de Granada, Certificate of Excellence: Intensive Courses in Spanish Culture and History 2018
- Psi Chi Honors Society in Psychology
- (TCU) Political Science Distinction Program
 - Departmental Honors Thesis Presentation: "From Protest to Revolution"
- Arkansas Scholastic Press Association Writer of the Year 2015 (Runner-up 2014)

SKILLS

- Spanish Language
- English Grammar Usage Mechanics Punctuation Program, Advanced Certification
- Knowledge and training in Export Control Systems (both U.S. and at multinational regime level)
- R, Stata, SPSS, and Qualtrics