POLS 1101: Introduction to American Government Spring 2023

Mondays and Wednesdays 11:30 – 12:20
and breakout section on Fridays

Room: Instructional Plaza S306

Instructor: Professor Bankert
Contact: alexa.bankert@uga.edu

Office Hour: Wednesdays 1-2 and by appointment
Office: Baldwin Hall, 380F

Course Description and Objective

This course is important – whether you are a Political Science major or not. You will be introduced to the fundamentals of the American government, such as its political institutions and main actors. Most importantly, this class aims to demonstrate how you are connected to the federal and state government in your daily life and present you with tools to become informed and act in politically meaningful ways. For this purpose, we will also examine what being American means in today's society and how our political institutions and behavior compare to other countries. This will also include a closer look at Georgia and its political system, so you gain a better understanding of how specific features of the American federal system shape politics. Ultimately, you will leave this class with a comprehensive understanding of how to critically evaluate and actively participate in the American political system.

Class Format

This class consists of a biweekly lecture (Mondays/Wednesdays) as well as a breakout session guided by a teaching assistant (TA) on Fridays. The lectures will take place in-person in Instructional Plaza S306. The breakout session will also take place in-person (classroom are listed below). Attendance in the breakout session is mandatory. Please email your TA if you cannot make it to class.

Sections

You will attend one breakout section on Fridays in addition to the main lectures on Mondays and Wednesdays. Please note that section attendance is mandatory.

Feeling Lost? We can help!

I will strive to make sure that the course is understandable, and that assignments and exams are manageable. Your TA and I are here to help.

If you have any questions about the lectures or exams, please do not hesitate to contact me at alexa.bankert@uga.edu.

If you have any questions about grades, assignments, papers, eLC, and InQuizitive, please contact your TA. Their email addresses are listed below.

Please give us at least 24 hours to reply to your email. Please note that you cannot reply to an email I send out via eLC (ending in @uga.view.usg.edu emails).

Email Etiquette

Please be professional and polite when you email me or your TA. It is not just a sign of respect but also a reflection of you. Poorly written emails are a quick way to make yourself look bad.

Before you hit send, read your email aloud and ask yourself:

- ⇒ Does it sound professional?
- ⇒ Does it sound like it could be a letter (not a text)?
- ⇒ Does it sound respectful?
- ⇒ Is everything spelled correctly?
- ⇒ Do I use proper punctuation and grammar?
- ⇒ Do I identify myself clearly, so my professor knows who I am and which class I'm in?
- ⇒ Do I address my instructor properly?
- ⇒ Is the subject line conveying the purpose of my email succinctly?
- ⇒ Am I using my official UGA email address? (Note that we can only reply to emails sent from your official UGA account)
- ⇒ Did I check the syllabus for an answer beforehand?

Office Hours

If you have difficulty with the course materials and/or assignments, please come talk to me or your teaching assistant. Don't be afraid to come by our office hours! We are not scary. However, please note that these office hours are for clarification of material, not for recreating a lecture or asking extremely detailed questions about the quizzes or the exam (My epitaph will read: "Will this be on the exam?")

If my office hour (Wednesdays 1-2) does not work for your schedule, please email me directly to make an appointment. I am available for in-person and Zoom meetings.

Required Text

We the People (14th essentials edition) – by Benjamin Ginsberg, Theodore J. Lowi, Margaret Weir, Caroline J. Tolbert, and Robert J. Spitzer with access to InQuizitive

Please note that you can also buy the textbook in an electronic format with the InQuizitive code at a more affordable rate here:

<https://digital.wwnorton.com/wethepeople14ess>

eLC & Communication

Our course is administered through eLC. You will find all of our course materials through this website. You will also submit assignments on eLC.

My primary means of communication with the class will be through announcements posted in eLC. Makes sure you receive eLC updates for our class automatically via email (eLC > Click on your profile > Notifications > Instant Notifications).

Please note that you cannot reply to an email I send out via eLC (ending in @uga.view.usg.edu emails). When emailing is, please only use the email addresses listed in the syllabus. Please also note that – due to privacy and confidentiality concern – I can only reply to emails sent from your UGA account.

TopHat

You are also required to purchase a Top Hat account. If you already have one from a prior class, you won't need to create a new one. If you do not have an account yet, please go to <https://support.tophat.com/s/article/Student-Top-Hat-Overview-and-Getting-Started-Guide> for instructions on how to get started with Top Hat. You will need access to your Top Hat account during the lecture either through your laptop or your phone. Our class is called "POLS1101 Prof. Bankert Spring 2023". The join code for this class is 364041.

Evaluation

Short Paper: You will complete one short paper in this course. Paper topics are listed in the syllabus and match each week's theme. Please make sure to stick with the paper prompt and to rely on factual information and authoritative sources when crafting your argument. Note that the due date of the paper varies according to the topic you choose.

There is a sign-up sheet under your breakout section's tab on eLC where you can sign up for a particular paper topic. Please note that a maximum number of 5 students can sign up for each topic. If you have not signed up for a topic by February 24th, your TA will assign you to a topic.

Short papers can range from 5 to 10 pages (double spaced) and are due by 6pm on Friday the following week (see deadlines in the course schedule). Please make sure to discuss the criteria of the paper with your TA in advance. You can submit a draft of your paper to your TA for review. This draft must be submitted by the prior Friday at 6pm to get feedback by the following Tuesday. Drafts must be submitted directly to your TA's email account, while your finalized paper must be submitted via eLC.

Unauthorized use of artificial intelligence software or word mixing software to write your paper or disguise plagiarized work is considered unauthorized assistance in this course.

Midterm: The midterm will consist of multiple-choice questions with varying levels of difficulty. These questions will cover material from the first half of the semester. As of now, the midterm exam is scheduled for Wednesday, March 1, 11:30 am – 12:20 pm in Instructional Plaza S306. If you accidentally miss the midterm exam, I will, regrettably, not be able to offer a make-up exam.

Final Exam: The final exam is not cumulative and will consist of multiple-choice questions with varying levels of difficulty. As of now, the final exam is scheduled for Wednesday, May 3, from 12 – 3 pm in Instructional Plaza S306. If you accidentally miss the final exam, I will, regrettably, not be able to offer a make-up exam.

InQuizitive: “InQuizitive” tests your comprehension of the assigned readings. To access it, you will need the code that comes with your textbook. These assignments must be completed via eLC and are due every Friday at 6pm of each week. If you complete the assignments through an external website, we will not be able to give you any credit for it. So please access “InQuizitive” only through eLC. (Note that bookmarking the InQuizitive website does not work either. You need to use the link I post on eLC every Monday).

Readings and Quizzes: The required readings typically include one chapter of the textbook per week. If any additional readings are assigned, they will be made available electronically on eLC or via the UGA library system (<https://www.libs.uga.edu/>). It is important that you stay current with these readings so that you can follow along with lectures and participate in discussions in your sections. I would strongly recommend you finish the readings before you complete any assignments. Over the course of the semester, there will be 4 short pop quizzes (3-5 questions) based on prior lectures and assigned readings so make sure you are familiar with each chapter’s key terms. Quizzes take place in your breakout session on Fridays.

Participation: Please note that attendance in the breakout section is required. If you cannot make it to class, please let your TA know in advance. Attendance in the in-person breakout session is mandatory. We allow for 2 unexcused absences throughout the semester. We do not need to know the reason for these absences. Any unexcused absences after the 2 freebies will result in a 5% deduction from your final participation grade for each absence. Please note that if you miss a quiz while taking one of your freebies, you won’t be eligible for a makeup quiz.

Excused absences are given when your TA receives one of the following: an official UGA excuse, a medical note, or a student-athlete responsibility. Documentation is required for all of these.

Your participation grade (10%) will primarily be based on two components: Participation in discussions during your breakout session as well as participation in TopHat during the breakout session. You can also improve your participation score through regular participation in TopHat during the lecture.

Please note that even perfect attendance without active participation does not guarantee a good participation score. You can find an overview of how we assess participation below:

90 – 100%	Student attends breakout section and regularly participates in class discussions. Student contributions critically engage with the material and with class peers.
80 – 89%	Student attends breakout section and regularly participates in class discussions. Student contributions critically engage with the material.

70 – 79%	Student attends breakout section and regularly participates in class discussions. Student contributions involve examples from personal life, but they lack critical engagement with the material.
60 – 69%	Student attends breakout section and occasionally participates in class discussions and TopHat.
50 – 59%	Student attends breakout section but does not participate in the discussions and TopHat.
0 – 49%	Student does not attend/ attends infrequently breakout section

Online Research Study: You are required to participate in an online research study. The study will take approximately 20-25 minutes and is supposed to provide you with an understanding of political science research. The study is a simple online survey that consists of multiple questions about your political opinions. All answers remain completely anonymous. The link to the online survey will be distributed via email by the end of March. You can complete the survey until Monday, May 1.

Grading Breakdown by Percentage:

- Final Exam: 20%
- Midterm: 20%
- Short Paper: 15%
- Quizzes: 15%
- InQuizitive: 15%
- Participation: 10%
- Participation in Online Research Study: 5%

Grading Scale for Final Semester Grades

100-94 A	79-77 C+	63-60 D-
93-90 A-	76-74 C	59-0 F
89-87 B+	73-70 C-
86-84 B	69-67 D+

Grade Appeals, Incompletes, Late Assignments, and Make-Up Policy

Any questions you have regarding grades should be directed to the teaching assistant. If you are unable to resolve the matter with him, you may appeal the grade to me within two weeks of receiving your grade. Keep in mind that formal grade appeals must be made in writing, and in the case of a paper, I will re-grade your entire paper. Therefore, your grade can go up or down. In your written appeal, elaborate on how you fulfilled the rubric's criteria so that I can compare your assessment to your TA's.

A final grade of "Incomplete" will only be given in this course under exceptional circumstances and is solely at the discretion of the instructor. If an incomplete is given, it is the student's responsibility to complete the necessary requirements as early in the following semester as possible. Legitimate excuses for absence from an exam (e.g., religious holiday, medical emergency, or illness) must be presented to the teaching assistant and accepted prior to the exam/quiz when feasible.

Late paper submissions will be docked a half letter grade per day, for each day that a paper is late (including weekends). InQuizitive cannot be submitted late for credit unless you arranged an extension with your TA in advance.

General Expectations

What I expect from you:

- To acknowledge that this is a really big class. We have 300 students! That is a big community of students. That is why we have 11 different breakout sections. Your TA is the person with the most knowledge about you and your grades.
- To check eLC (esp. announcements) on a regular basis during the week and read my emails. Even better: Enable automatic eLC updates.
- To follow professional norms when writing an email to me or your TA.

- To do the readings even when there is no quiz.
- To participate in the breakout sessions.
- To submit assignments on time.
- To check the syllabus before you email me. (In 65% of student emails, the answer is in the syllabus.)
- To post questions about the readings and the lecture to our Q&A board on eLC.
- To email me when neither the syllabus nor the Q&A board have the answer you need.
- To work on your response paper as soon as possible rather than last minute.
- To follow academic honesty policies.
- To be open-minded about the material – even if it is challenging.

What you can expect from me and your TA:

- To acknowledge that you have obligations beyond this class, including other coursework, caretaking responsibility, and/or jobs.
- To be available via email every weekday (at least from 9-5pm) and Zoom (via appointment).
- To provide all additional readings via eLC.
- To communicate module goals, assignments, and deadlines on a weekly basis and to send out additional reminders.
- To be respectful when you seek help or advice.
- To grade quizzes, exams, and assignments in a timely manner.
- To provide a detailed rubric for your response paper.
- To provide feedback while you work on your response paper.
- To provide relevant course materials on time.
- To be comically excited about political science.
- To be open-minded about your needs and expectations – even if it is challenging. 😊

Syllabus Policy

I reserve the right to make changes to the syllabus if necessary. I will give you fair notice (at least a week) if something, such as a reading assignment, is to change. Please note that due to the COVID-19 pandemic, class schedules might change. There is not much I can do about that, except to help you navigate those changes. In turn, I ask for your patience and flexibility.

Culture of Honesty Policy

The University of Georgia has an academic honesty policy. You are responsible for knowing and complying with the policy and procedures relating to academic honesty. To understand what constitutes dishonest work, as defined by the University, please carefully review the policy here: <https://ovpi.uga.edu/academichonesty/academic-honesty-policy>. All students enrolled in University courses are expected to complete coursework responsibilities with fairness and honesty. Failure to do so by seeking unfair advantage over others or misrepresenting someone else's work as your own can result in disciplinary action. Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will automatically receive an F in the course.

Disability Resource Center

If you anticipate needing classroom or exam accommodations due to the impact of a disability or medical condition, you must register for services with the Disability Resource Center. Additional information can be found here: <http://drc.uga.edu/>

Withdrawal Policy

Undergraduate students can only withdraw from four courses and receive a withdrawal-passing (WP) grade while enrolled at the University. Students can drop any class without penalty during the drop/add period at the beginning of every semester. Dropped courses during the drop/add period do not qualify as withdrawals. Instructors have the ability to withdraw a student from the class due to excessive absences. Please carefully review the policy in its entirety here: <http://www.reg.uga.edu/policies/withdrawals>

Prohibition on Recording Lectures

In the absence of written authorization from the UGA Disability Resource Center, students may not make a visual or audio recording of any aspect of this course. Students who have a recording accommodation agree in writing that they:

- Will use the records only for personal academic use during the specific course.
- Understand that faculty members have copyright interest in their class lectures and that they agree not to infringe on this right in any way.
- Understand that the faculty member and students in the class have privacy rights and agree not to violate those rights by using recordings for any reason other than their own personal study.
- Will not release, digitally upload, broadcast, transcribe, or otherwise share all or any part of the recordings. They also agree that they will not profit financially and will not allow others to benefit personally or financially from lecture recordings or other course materials.
- Will erase/delete all recordings at the end of the semester.
- Understand that violation of these terms may subject them to discipline under the Student Code of Conduct or subject them to liability under copyright laws.

Preferred Name and Pronouns

Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I am eager to address you by your preferred name and/or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records.

COVID-19 Safety Procedures

Face coverings. Face coverings in public spaces, including classrooms, are recommended for all.

Keeping it clean. You can help slow the spread of the virus by frequently washing your hands.

Your health. You are urged to self-monitor for signs or symptoms of COVID-19.

Check your email regularly so you don't miss important information, and also check the University COVID-19 website for updates and resources, this web site includes links from student affairs with helpful, up-to-date messages for students and parents.

Mental Health and Wellness Resources

If you or someone you know needs assistance, you are encouraged to contact Student Care and Outreach in the Division of Student Affairs at 706-542-7774 or visit <https://sco.uga.edu>. They will help you navigate any difficult circumstances you may be facing by connecting you with the appropriate resources or services.

- UGA has several resources for a student seeking mental health services (<https://www.uhs.uga.edu/bewelluga/bewelluga>) or crisis support (<https://www.uhs.uga.edu/info/emergencies>).
- If you need help managing stress anxiety, relationships, etc., please visit BeWellUGA (<https://www.uhs.uga.edu/bewelluga/bewelluga>) for a list of FREE workshops, classes, mentoring, and health coaching led by licensed clinicians and health educators in the University Health Center.
- Additional resources can be accessed through the UGA App.
