PADP 8620: Policy Process

Fall 2023

University of Georgia
School of Public and International Affairs
Department of Public Administration and Policy

Emily V. Bell, Ph.D.
Office: Baldwin Hall 415
Email: evbell@uga.edu
Class Schedule: Wednesdays, 7:10 PM to 9:55 PM
Class Location: Baldwin 102

Office Hours: available by appointment

Course Description
Key concepts in the study of public policy. Among the topics covered are description of policy process to include agenda setting, policy formulation, and policy adoption.

This course is designed to familiarize you with the policy process and how to communicate complex policy information to different audiences. Two competencies that students can expect to gain from this course are (1) understanding and communicating the policy cycle, and (2) an ability to critically analyze policy concepts and how these relate to your role as a professional. These skills will be valuable for careers in public administration and provide a foundation for students interested in policy-related research. These competencies will be developed through individual writing exercises and in-class discussion.

How will we approach these discussions and exercises? This course will be conducted in person once per week.

Student Learning Objectives

- Students will become familiarized with the roots of policy process studies and how the field has evolved over time.
- Students will develop and improve their command of theoretical concepts in order to conceptually frame and communicate policy information.
- Students will link concepts covered in the course to their own role in the policy process.
- Students will complete regular exercises and assignments to convey policy process information for different audiences.

Required Text

You will need to purchase your book either from the UGA bookstore or from your favorite online vendor.
Recommended Text

eLearning Commons and Online Resources

In addition to the required textbooks, additional reading is posted in a folder in the eLearning Commons (eLC). Students can access online information about our class at http://elc.uga.edu. Graduate students should become familiar with searching for journal articles and books using the library’s holdings and electronic databases. Many journals are free to you through your status as a student at the University of Georgia, and you should make use of these resources.

Assignments and Grade Distribution

Assignments will be evaluated using a point system, with 100 points possible for the class. Note, the grade “A” indicates “outstanding” achievement. The following scale will be used to assign letter grades in this class:

<tr>
<th>Points Range</th>

In-Class Discussion: A core feature of this class is to engage with the material to develop—and strengthen—a command of policy process concepts. This will entail discussion in class of the concepts throughout lecture, as well as during—and following—in-class exercises.

Case Review Memo: The case review memo is a writing assignment that challenges students to i) articulate how the policy case illustrates concepts of the policy process and ii) what strategies, as a practitioner, they would employ to address what they consider challenges. The case study will correspond to a ‘stage’ of the policy process. Details for the assignment is summarized in an assignment information sheet found in the eLC. The assignment information sheet contains the rubric that will be used to evaluate the review. Prior to the review, we will cover review-writing strategies and resources. The case study review is due October 13 by 11:59pm EDT.

Take-Home Exams 1 and 2: There are two essay examinations that, together, comprise 28% of your final grade. The exams are designed to assess your command of the material and concepts we cover therein. Foundational knowledge about the policy process and how this relates to theory and practice is a critical for current and future public administrators seeking to understand the system in which they operate.
The exams will each require responses on two of three questions presented. Exam 1 will cover material beginning from the beginning of the semester (Weeks 2-5) and Exam 2 will cover material that followed Exam 1 (Weeks 7-10). The written response should be two-three pages double-spaced for each question (11pt font, Times New Roman). With note taking and class participation throughout the semester, students should need no more than 2.5 hours (i.e., class time) to complete each exam.

- Exam One will be available on eLC at 7:10pm EDT on Wednesday, September 20, and is due on eLC by 7:10pm EDT on Thursday, September 21

- Exam Two will be available on eLC at 7:10pm EDT on Wednesday, November 1, and is due on eLC by 7:10pm EDT on Thursday, November 2

In-Class Presentation: Clearly and concisely communicating the elements of your policy brief is a critical skill to build, especially when conveying this information to decision makers with limited time. Your group will give a 15-minute PowerPoint presentation of key points from your policy brief (PhD students, you will do the same for your independently written brief). As a supportive exercise, other presenting groups will ask questions and offer recommendations to improve the content (pointers on feedback will be posted to eLC). Presentations will take place on November 15 and 29 during class. Instructions for developing/giving a presentation and instructions for peer review will be posted on eLC.

Policy Brief: A policy brief is a key resource for framing policy issues, discussing what is known about the issue, how this relates to policy goals, and recommending solutions to decision makers or other target audiences. This assignment will focus on your group’s policy issue of choice. Instructions will be posted to eLC. The policy brief is due on December 13 by 11:59pm EDT on eLC.

Assignment Submission and Grades
Assignments—unless completed as part of an in-class exercise—will be submitted on eLC by the set deadline.

All grades will be posted in a timely manner in eLC. Students are encouraged to frequently check their progress during the semester. Students have two weeks after a grade is posted to meet with me regarding grading issues. After two weeks, the grade WILL NOT be changed.

Should you wish to discuss your grade, you must meet with me during office hours or by Zoom. I am not able to discuss grades by email.

Class Expectations and Guidelines

Class Preparation and Discussion: Complete the reading assigned before each class meeting and be prepared for discussion. Make sure everyone has an opportunity for input. We are interested in each person’s contribution, so please understand if I ask for brevity or a conclusion to a chain of discussion. Your dedication each week will be necessary for gaining the knowledge and tools necessary for the writing assignments and presentation. Finally, you are expected to practice professional decorum and respect in the classroom.

Lecture Protocols: Recording or distribution of class sessions (video or audio) is prohibited. If a student wishes to record, they must first gain approval from the instructor and other students that may be included in the recording. Students that require recording for purposes of special accommodation must have relevant written accommodations from the UGA Disability Resource Center. Please see the DRC guidelines for more information.

Freedom of expression is welcome, but decorum must be professional and respectful. In accordance with UGA here, expressive activities must not disrupt the class.

Preferred Name and Pronouns: Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student’s legal name. I am eager to address you by your preferred name and/or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records.

Academic Honesty: As a University of Georgia student, you have agreed to abide by the University’s academic honesty policy, “A Culture of Honesty,” and the Student Honor Code. All academic work must meet the standards described in “A Culture of Honesty” found at: https://honesty.uga.edu/Academic-Honesty-Policy/. Lack of knowledge of the academic honesty policy is not a reasonable explanation for a violation. Questions related to course assignments and the academic honesty policy should be directed to the instructor.

Plagiarism: Our capacity to learn and synthesize knowledge within the public administration profession depends upon our ability to build on the foundation of existing knowledge and research. Recognizing and documenting the work of others is critical for all students, but especially for graduate students. When writing, students must take great care in how they reference ideas and information sources. Never use someone else’s words or ideas in your writing without proper attribution. Serious penalties exist for academic misconduct and plagiarism. Students should read and be familiar with the following resources:

- UGA Academic Honesty Policy: Plagiarism
  https://honesty.uga.edu/Academic-Honesty-Policy/Prohibited_Conduct/

- UGA Libraries Research Guide: Writing and Citing
  http://www.libs.uga.edu/researchguide/writing/index.html

Mental Health and Wellness Resources: If you or someone you know needs assistance, you are encouraged to contact Student Care and Outreach in the Division of Student Affairs at 706-542-7774 or visit https://sco.uga.edu. They will help you navigate any difficult circumstances you may be facing by connecting you with the appropriate resources or services.

- UGA has several resources for a student seeking mental health services (https://www.uhs.uga.edu/bewelluga/bewelluga) or crisis support (https://www.uhs.uga.edu/info/emergencies).

- If you need help managing stress anxiety, relationships, etc., please visit BeWellUGA (https://www.uhs.uga.edu/bewelluga/bewelluga) for a list of FREE workshops, classes, mentoring, and health coaching led by licensed clinicians and health educators in the University Health Center. Additional resources can be accessed through the UGA App.

Electronic Devices: Silence all phones and other electronic noise-making devices while you are in the classroom. Save text messages and emails for the break or after class. Laptop computers or tablets may be used for taking notes, but students must refrain from participating in any online activities during class. Before using electronic devices with online access in class, students should be aware of the learning distractions associated with these technologies in the classroom (e.g., http://tinyurl.com/q7ptg).

Attendance and Accommodations: Attendance is not required, but it is necessary to receive credit for in-class discussion. To receive full credit for in-class discussion, you will need to attend 12 of the 14 classes (this does not include the presentation day on December 2). You are responsible for staying up to date on class content. If you fall ill, please communicate with the instructor so that we can make appropriate accommodations. If health concerns develop and you require an accommodation, please reach out to the instructor and/or the Disability Resource Center (DRC) on campus, as appropriate. The DRC can be reached at drc@uga.edu or 706.542.8719.

Late Assignments: Deadlines have been structured so that the instructor can provide regular and periodic feedback on your understanding and application of the course material. For late submissions, 1 point will be deducted from the final grade of the assignment for each day it is late. No late material will be accepted after December 13, 2023.

Communication with the Instructor: Throughout the semester, you can reach me by email, and can expect me to return correspondence in a timely manner (at most 48 hours, not including weekends). I am also available to talk during office hours. If the available time slot does not align with your schedule, contact me by email so that we can identify a good meeting time.

Disabilities and Accommodations: If you plan to request accommodations for a disability, please register with the Disability Resource Center. They can be reached by visiting Clark Howell Hall, calling 706-542-8719 (voice) or 706-542-8778 (TTY), or by visiting http://drc.uga.edu

Syllabus and Schedule Changes: The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary. The instructor will communicate changes in writing through your UGA email account.

Other Logistics:
- Please go here to learn more information on the confidentiality of student records.
- Requests for incompletes (I) and withdrawal (W) must be made in accordance with university policies. For information on incompletes, please go to here; for withdrawals go here.

Coronavirus Information for Students

Information on resources for dealing with COVID-19 are outlined here.

- What do I do if I have symptoms? Students showing symptoms should self-isolate and schedule an appointment with the University Health Center by calling 706-542-1162 (Monday-Friday, 8am–5pm). Please DO NOT walk-in. Please go to the UGA emergencies and after-hours care website for more information.

- What do I do if I am notified that I have been exposed? Students who learn they have been directly exposed to COVID-19 but are not showing symptoms should self-quarantine for 14 days consistent with Department of Public Health (DPH) and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines. Please correspond with your instructor via email, with a cc: to Student Care & Outreach at sco@uga.edu, to coordinate continuing your coursework while self-quarantined. If you develop symptoms, you should contact the University Health Center to make an appointment to be tested. You should continue to monitor your symptoms daily on DawgCheck.

• How do I get a test? Students who are demonstrating symptoms of COVID-19 should call the University Health Center. UHC is offering testing by appointment for students; appointments may be booked by calling 706-542-1162. UGA will also be recruiting asymptomatic students to participate in surveillance tests. Students living in residence halls, Greek housing and off-campus apartment complexes are encouraged to participate.

• What do I do if I test positive? Any student with a positive COVID-19 test is required to report the test in DawgCheck and should self-isolate immediately. Students should not attend classes in-person until the isolation period is completed. Once you report the positive test through DawgCheck, UGA Student Care and Outreach will follow up with you.

Mental Health and Wellness Resources
