INTL 4360: East Asian Political Systems

Dr. Rongbin Han

Class Time: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 9:35-10:50 (Baldwin Hall 322)
Office Hours: Thursdays 11:30-12:30 or by Appointment

Course Description and Objectives
This course introduces students to the dynamics of East Asian political systems, including China, Taiwan, Japan, and South Korea and North Korea. We will trace critical historical trajectories of these systems, focusing on political evolution, economic development, and social transformation. We will survey important contemporary issues in these regimes before situating them in the regional context to examine the rivalry and cooperation among them. There are three primary goals: (1) to familiarize students with basic facts of East Asian political systems, (2) to present important theories and methods that have been applied to analyze East Asian societies, and (3) to help students develop analytical skills that are essential to understand political phenomena in and beyond East Asia.

Required Books:

Suggested books (available in UGA Library):
• Han Park, North Korea: The Politics of Unconventional Wisdom (Lynne Rienner Publishers, 2002).
• Denny Roy, Taiwan: A Political History (Cornell University Press, 2003).

Attendance and Participation (20%) Please attend class regularly. Please read and reflect upon assigned readings and the response paper before the class. Please engage in discussion and other classroom activities actively. Other forms of participation are also encouraged.

Response Paper (10%) Please write a mini response paper (two-page, single spaced) on the date you select. The response paper shall (1) effectively summarizing all assigned readings and (2) critically engage and reflect on one or more points you derive from the readings; (3) include one or two discussion questions. Please submit the response two days before your selected date (for example: if you pick August 27, you will do the reading on Goto-Jones, Modern Japan Chapter 1 and you shall submit the response by August 25 midnight). Response paper writers are also expected to facilitate discussion.

* The syllabus is a general plan for the course; updates and revisions may be necessary. Please inform the instructor if you have a disability that needs classroom accommodations.
Pop Quizzes (15%) Four pop quizzes will be administrated throughout the semester. Your lowest score will be dropped and the remaining three will each be 5% of the total grade.

Mid-term (20%) and Final Exam (35%) The questions will be based on the readings, lectures and discussion. Detailed instructions will be announced before the exams.

For the final, you have the option to write a research paper instead of taking the exam. You will select your topics with the instructor’s guidance. Only two restrictions on selection of topics: (1) It must involve one or more political systems in East Asia; (2) It must be empirical rather than normative. The end product shall be a 15-page paper. Grading of the paper is similar to that of essay questions in exams. In both cases, you have to answer the question properly and sufficiently. The major difference is, if you opt to write a paper, you can pick your own question. You are expected to make an argument and try to convince readers with your analysis. Additional attention shall be paid to organization of the paper, the coherence of the analysis and the elaboration of your argument. You also have to cite sources properly and try your best to get rid of grammatical errors as you have more time and more preparation for the paper. Should you choose this option, please notify the instructor by November 1 and provide a one-page research plan that specifies your topic, research question, and data sources. The paper is due the same time as the final.

Mental Health and Wellness Resources:
• If you or someone you know needs assistance, you are encouraged to contact Student Care and Outreach in the Division of Student Affairs at 706-542-7774 or visit https://sco.uga.edu/. They will help you navigate any difficult circumstances you may be facing by connecting you with the appropriate resources or services.
• UGA has several resources for a student seeking mental health services (https://www.uhs.uga.edu/bewelluga/bewelluga) or crisis support (https://www.uhs.uga.edu/info/emergencies).
• If you need help managing stress anxiety, relationships, etc., please visit BeWellUGA (https://www.uhs.uga.edu/bewelluga/bewelluga) for a list of FREE workshops, classes, mentoring, and health coaching led by licensed clinicians and health educators in the University Health Center.
• Additional resources can be accessed through the UGA App.

Grade Dispute:
If you have any questions about your exam grade, you shall report to the instructor within one week from the time you receive the grade. You need to present a written appeal explaining why you think your grade should be changed. Please also bear in mind that disputing grade may end up with higher, lower or no change in your grade.

Academic Honesty:
As a University of Georgia student, you have agreed to abide by the University’s academic honesty policy, “A Culture of Honesty,” and the Student Honor Code. All academic work must meet the standards described in “A Culture of Honesty” found at: www.uga.edu/honesty. Lack of knowledge of the academic honesty policy is not a reasonable explanation for a violation. Questions related to course assignments and the academic honesty policy should be directed to the instructor.
Additional Ground Rules and Resources:

- On preferred names/pronouns. “Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I am eager to address you by your preferred name and/or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records.”

- Prohibition on recording lectures. “In the absence of written authorization from the UGA Disability Resource Center, students may not make a visual or audio recording of any aspect of this course. Students who have a recording accommodation agree in writing that they:
  - Will use the records only for personal academic use during the specific course.
  - Understand that faculty members have copyright interest in their class lectures and that they agree not to infringe on this right in any way.
  - Understand that the faculty member and students in the class have privacy rights and agree not to violate those rights by using recordings for any reason other than their own personal study.
  - Will not release, digitally upload, broadcast, transcribe, or otherwise share all or any part of the recordings. They also agree that they will not profit financially and will not allow others to benefit personally or financially from lecture recordings or other course materials.
  - Will erase/delete all recordings at the end of the semester.
  - Understand that violation of these terms may subject them to discipline under the Student Code of Conduct or subject them to liability under copyright laws.”
