Required Reading Materials

Required Text:

- The Logic of American Politics, 11th ed. (978-1-0718-6125-7) [KJKVR] (Available at UGA Bookstore or E-Book Version available at: <https://us.sagepub.com> or <https://www.redshelf.com>)
- U.S. Constitution [C] (Appendix 3 in KJKVR)
- Friday readings will be posted in ELC.

Course Overview

Students will gain a more complete understanding of the basic organization and functions of the United States and Georgia governments through a series of assigned readings and lectures. Emphasis will be placed on learning basic concepts and ideas concerning how our government actually works (or fails to work). After successfully completing this course you will hopefully be able to comprehend, and meaningfully participate in, the American political process.

Monday and Wednesday meetings will normally be reserved for lectures on general topical areas, while Friday sessions will be used to focus on a more specific question related to the general area being covered that week. Students are expected to read the assigned materials prior to the class meeting and be prepared to engage in a discussion of the topic at hand.

Course Requirements/Expectations

You are expected to take all three of the regularly scheduled exams as well as the final. The grade earned on the final exam, in addition to counting for the assigned 25% of a student's grade, may also be substituted for the lowest grade earned from Exams 1-3. In the event that a student misses one of the exams scheduled during the semester (Exams 1-3), the normal procedure will be to substitute the final exam grade (Exam 4) for the missed exam. Students must take Exam 4. Make-up exams are not given.

While attendance is not required, it should be noted that regular attendance is crucial for success in this class. Lectures will not be posted online. In order to adequately prepare for class, all assigned readings should be examined by the dates indicated on this syllabus. Not all assigned readings may be discussed in class; however, this does not negate your responsibility to familiarize yourself with these materials.

Grading Procedure

Your course grade will be based on the following distribution:

Exams 4 @ 25% each¹

Grading Scale:

<60: F; 60-69: D; 70-72: C-; 73-76: C; 77-79: C+; 80-82: B-; 83-86: B; 87-89: B+; 90-92: A-; 93-100: A
