This online course examines the actors and institutions that make up the American criminal justice system. The role of each will be discussed, as will the current and developing policies relevant to their activities and effectiveness. Political and constitutional questions central to criminal justice administration will be considered, as will their practical effects. All lectures for this course are asynchronous. These lectures are available on the course ELC.

Readings. The following textbook is required:

G. Cole, C. Smith, and C. DeJong, Criminal Justice in America, 10th ed. (2021; ISBN 0357456335)

Examinations. There will be a midterm examination and a final examination. No exceptions will be made for the scheduled examination times except in the case of a documented medical emergency. If you have additional needs or have permission from the Disability Resource Center for extra time on exams, please contact me privately and arrangements will be made.

Paper. A 6-8 page (double-space) paper is due June 4 (11:59 PM via ELC). A list of possible paper topics is located at www.stateofthejudiciary.com. See the 'Educational Activities' section for four potential writing prompts.

Grading. Midterm examination 30%; paper 30%; final examination 40%

Grades will be assigned based on the following scale:

100-94 A	75-73 C
93-90 A-	72-70 C-
