Course Description

This course is an introduction to American politics and government. We will explore the fundamentals of the American government, including the philosophical and constitutional foundations, political institutions and main actors, such as Congress and the presidency, democratic practices such as voting, political participation, and civil rights and liberties. The course also examines the State of Georgia, its constitution, and political system. Using a combination of in-person lectures, in-class activities and exercises, and adaptive learning software, the course seeks to give students a better understanding and appreciation of the American political process. This course applies to Area V Social Sciences requirements of UGA's General Education Curriculum. It also satisfies the USG graduation requirements for demonstrating knowledge of both the U.S. and Georgia Constitutions.

During the course students will seek to learn the following:

- Apply theoretical frameworks, such as federalism, separation of powers, and pluralism, to analyze the organization and functioning of American government, its political institutions and processes.
- Learn the philosophical and constitutional foundations of the U.S. political system, including the state of Georgia, and examine primary sources over time, including the Declaration of Independence, Federalist Papers, the U.S. and Georgia Constitutions, among others.
- Critically assess the effects of media and public opinion on political processes using analytical tools to interpret data related to the American political system, including public opinion surveys, election results, and demographic trends, and communicate their findings in written, verbal, and graphical formats.
- Learn to articulate competing positions on political topics in assignments.
- Demonstrate an ability to engage in respectful discussion and civil debate on American politics that are associated with multiple points of view.

Required Book

The following books are required and should be available at the campus bookstore:

Bianco, William T. and David T. Canon. 2025. American Politics Today, Elections Update 8th Edition, W.W. Norton and Company.

An Ebook version of this text is available here. Links to the Ebook and supporting materials are also available on the course's eLC page.

We will also make use of American Politics Today's InQuizitive software as a graded part of the course. InQuizitive is an adaptive quizzing tool that will help students work through the concepts presented in each chapter of the textbook. You will need access to InQuizitive. You can purchase an Ebook from the publisher that includes access to InQuizitive. New copies of the textbook will be available from the campus bookstore and new copies will include an access code that allows students to access InQuizitive. If you purchase a used textbook, you will need to purchase access to InQuizitive separately.

In addition to the book and InQuizitive software, reading the news on a daily basis will be important for this course. The New York Times and the Wall Street Journal are two excellent news sources. University of Georgia students have full digital access to both of these papers through the UGA Libraries (see this website for more details).

There will be additional readings assigned for some classes. These appear on the course syllabus now, but may be substituted for others as the semester progresses. All of these readings will be provided to students via eLC.

Course Grading

Your grade in this class will be assigned according to the following:

1. Class attendance and participation (25% of final grade): I expect you to attend class daily (i.e. excessive absences, regardless of your performance on exams, will result in a lowering of your final grade). If you know for sure that you will be missing class, I ask that you please email me in advance and notify me. Class attendance is especially important in this intensive one month summer semester. Class periods will be part lecture and part discussion. You should be prepared to discuss any assigned reading for the day with your classmates. Additional short readings or articles may be assigned.
2. Quizzes (25% of final grade): Students are required to complete online quizzes as part of their course grade. There will be a quiz to complete for each of the assigned textbook chapters using the InQuizitive system. These quizzes are adaptive and should help students both understand the course materials and prepare for exams. Additional information about InQuizitive can be found on the course's eLC page.
3. Mid-Semester Exam (25% of final grade): Please take note of the date for the exam and mark it on your calendar now.

4. Final Exam (25% of final grade): Please take note of the date for the final exam and mark it on your calendar now.

Missed exams will only be excused in the most extraordinary circumstances (death in the family, documented illnesses, acts of God, etc.) If you are excused from an exam, I reserve the right to alter the format and substance of the makeup exam (e.g. you may not get the same exam as everyone else).

Course grades will be assigned as follows: 93–100% = A, 90–93% = A-, 87–90% = B+, 83–87% = B, 80–83% = B-, 77–80% = C+, 73–77% = C, 70–73% = C-, 60–70% = D, 0–60% = F.

Other Issues

1. Syllabus Disclaimer: The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary.
2. Instructor Availability: I am available to meet with students by appointment if anyone cannot attend my posted office hours. Please email me to schedule a meeting.
3. Accessibility: Students in need of accessibility resources of any kind are strongly encouraged to tell me at the beginning of the semester, so appropriate accommodations can be made. If you plan to request accommodations for this course, please register with Accessibility and Testing. They can be reached by visiting Clark Howell Hall, calling 706-542-8719 (voice) or by visiting their website.
4. Classroom Behavior: Students should behave professionally throughout the course. Disruptive behavior in discussion sections will not be tolerated. Laptops and other electronic may be used to take notes in class, but not in a way that is disruptive to other students.

UGA is committed to creating a dynamic, diverse, and welcoming learning environment for all students and has a non-discrimination policy that reflects this philosophy. Our class will respect all students regardless of race, color, sex (including sexual harassment and pregnancy), sexual orientation, gender identity, ethnicity or national origin, religion, age, genetic information, disability, or veteran status.

5. Cheating and Plagiarism: UGA Student Honor Code: “I will be academically honest in all of my academic work and will not tolerate academic dishonesty of others.” A Culture of Honesty, the University’s policy and procedures for handling cases of suspected dishonesty, can be found at Academic Honesty.
6. FERPA Notice: The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) grants students certain information privacy rights. More information can be found at the registrar’s website.

7. Well-being Resources: UGA Well-being Resources promote student success by cultivating a culture that supports a more active, healthy, and engaged student community. Anyone needing assistance is encouraged to contact Student Care & Outreach (SCO) in the Division of Student Affairs at 706-542-8479 or visit sco.uga.edu. Student Care & Outreach helps students navigate difficult circumstances by connecting them with the most appropriate resources or services. They also administer the Embark@UGA program which supports students experiencing, or who have experienced, homelessness, foster care, or housing insecurity.

UGA provides both clinical and non-clinical options to support student well-being and mental health, any time, any place. Whether on campus, or studying from home or abroad, UGA Well-being Resources are here to help.

- Counseling and Psychiatric Services: caps.uga.edu or CAPS 24/7 crisis support at 706-542-2273.
- Health Promotion/ Fontaine Center: healthpromotion.uga.edu
- Accessibility and Testing: accessibility.uga.edu

Additional information, including free digital well-being resources, can be accessed through the UGA app or by visiting well-being.uga.edu.

8. Artificial Intelligence-Based Software: Students are allowed to use generative AI software for academic work, provided they document its use. This includes specifying the software used, the extent of its use, and how it contributed to the final product. AI-generated content must be cited appropriately, and students should include a brief reflection on how the AI tool helped them and what they learned from using it. The work must remain original, with AI not replacing critical thinking or personal effort. Instructors will evaluate both the content and the documentation of AI use, considering proper documentation in grading. Failure to document AI use may result in penalties, including reduced grades or academic disciplinary actions. Cases of suspected misuse will be reviewed by the academic integrity committee.
