

Claire Thielens

BA, English and Political Science

Personal email:claire.thielens@gmail.com Student email:claire.thielens@uga.edu

1. EDUCATION

- B.A., Political Science and English Literature, Seattle University, June 2025
- Summa Cum Laude
- University Honors: Society, Policy & Citizenship Track

2. RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- The Second-Wave Feminist Movement and the Works of Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Departmental Honors in English Literature, Spring 2025
- Thesis Supervisor: Dr. Carlyn Ferrari
- Student Research Assistant at Albers School of Business and Economics, October 2023-present
- Wrote detailed, professional briefs for a book entitled Women and Work: History, Issues, Trends (Bloomsbury Publishing), forthcoming 2025

3. PUBLICATIONS

- Navigating Interfaith Leadership in Dungeons & Dragons: The Art of Inclusive Storytelling, The Interfaith Observer (Spring 2024)
 - Women and Work: History, Issues, Trends, Contributor, Bloomsbury Publishing, 2025 (Forthcoming 2025)
 - Contributed 28 articles, largely concentrating on law, politics, and courts
-

4. PRESENTATIONS

- “Social Critique and Marriage Relations in Wilkie Collins’s The Moonstone,” Inter-Sections: WGSS Student Research Showcase, February 2025
- “Addressing Racial Disparities in Cancer Care Through Community Outreach,” Society, Policy, and Citizenship Symposium, June 2023

5. SKILLS

Technology: Google Suite; Microsoft Suite; Salesforce; Microsoft Excel

Languages: English (native speaker); Spanish (beginner level)

Interpersonal: Teamwork; Organization; Implementation of Feedback; Written and Verbal Communication; Public Speaking; Professionalism; Initiative-Taking